

WheelPower

Governance Statement

Introduction

WheelPower is committed to ensuring our work complies with the principles of good governance set out in Sport England's A Code for Sports Governance.

We believe in having strong governance as it assists us to achieve our ambitious vision to transform lives through sport.

Governance Principles

WheelPower aims to have a clear and appropriate governance structure, led by a Board which is collectively responsible for the long-term success of the organisation and exclusively vested with the power to lead it. The Board shall be properly constituted, and shall operate effectively.

WheelPower shall recruit and engage people with appropriate diversity, independence, skills, experience and knowledge to take effective decisions that further the organisation's goals.

WheelPower shall be transparent and accountable, engaging effectively with stakeholders and nurturing internal democracy.

WheelPower shall uphold high standards of integrity, and engage in regular and effective evaluation to drive continuous improvement.

WheelPower shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations, undertake responsible financial strategic planning, and have appropriate controls and risk management procedures.

Governance Action Plan

To support this process and help with our continuous improvement, we have a number of plans, policies and terms of reference which are part of our Governance Action Plan which is monitored regularly by the Board and updated as required to comply with the Code and legislation.
